Persia International Bank PLC – Sanctions Notice

Persia International Bank PLC has been made subject to financial sanctions by the UK Government and the European Union as of 29 September 2025.

The Bank complies with all applicable legal and regulatory obligations, including those set by the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA), Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), and His Majesty's Treasury (HMT).

This notice is provided to ensure transparency regarding the Bank's current regulatory status. Stakeholders should refer to the UK Government's General Licence INT/2025/7345464, issued by the Office of Financial Sanctions Implementation (OFSI), which outlines the permissions and limitations applicable to the Bank under the UK sanctions regime.

Further information on these sanctions can be found via the following official resources:
